

MOTHER: PURE AND UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

My mother stays by my side all day and night
And always protects and nourishes me right.

She gives me all the love without asking
The joys of her company are everlasting.

She is my best friend and my best mother too
I respect her and share secrets like buddies do.

The smiles and tears, the laughs and fears
All emotional bonds are linked to her cares...

I feel safe and protected from the very first day
As she does her full-time care without a holiday.

I am too little to understand much about the world
But you're always there to make me proud and bold.

My mother is, on the earth, like a Heaven
Who has made my life gorgeous and enliven.

She always puts my priorities ahead of her own
And whenever I commit blunder she doesn't frown.

The happiness I feel after seeing ravishing face is pleasure
The moments spend in her company are priceless treasure.

Her charismatic presence changes weather
Whenever we both drink and dine together.

Whenever I talk to her, rest of the world disappears
With her presence, I face problems without fears.

My life is precious for me and so is my mother
Who never makes me feel I'm not having father.
